

Judgment Enforcement

The first choice in consumer and commercial debt collection

Judgment Enforcement

Cypress Asset Recovery's judgment enforcement professionals specialize in assisting businesses and individuals with obtaining recovery on their judgments.

Whether we are enforcing judgments which have resulted after our own efforts or whether we have been retained specifically to enforce judgments obtained by others, we will do everything possible to extract compliance from the debtor. We use every available remedy allowed by law to secure the judgment, including forced sale of real estate, wage garnishment, real property liens, seizure of cars, boats, airplanes, bank accounts and securities. In some cases we can even pierce corporate veils.

We are confident in our ability to recover and will advance all fees associated with executing on your judgment and recovery, collecting those fees back from the debtor. Our success is rooted in a persistent approach to judgment collections, expertise in financial investigations, and access to seasoned experts in the requisite fields. Cypress Asset recovery utilizes the most sophisticated technology available to support our recovery and collection efforts backed by a team of seasoned and dedicated professionals.